GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

New Delhi, the 2nd January, 1942.

ORDINANCE No. II OF 1942.

AN

to provide for the setting up of special criminal Courts.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which makes it necessary to provide for the setting up of special criminal Courts;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:— 26 Geo. 5, c. 2.

Short title, extent and operation.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Special Criminal Courts Ordinance, 1942.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force in any Province only if the Provincial Government, being satisfied of the existence of an emergency arising from a hostile attack on India or on a country neighbouring on India or from the imminence of such an attack, by notification in the official Gazette, declares it to be in force in the Province, and shall cease to be in force when such notification is rescinded:

Provided that any trial or proceeding which was pending at the time of such rescission may be continued and completed as if the provisions of this Ordinance were still in force.

Definition.

2. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "Provincial Government" means, in relation to a Chief Commissioner's Province, the Chief Commissioner.

Special Courts.

3. Courts of criminal jurisdiction may be constituted under this Ordinance of the following classes, namely:—

(i) Special Judges;

(ii) Special Magistrates;

(iii) Summary Courts.

Special Judges.

4. The Provincial Government may appoint to be a Special Judge for such area as it may think fit any person who has acted for a period of not less than two years in the exercise of the powers of a Sessions Judge or an Assistant Sessions Judge under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter in this Ordinance referred to as the Code). V of 1898.

Jurisdiction of Special Judges.

5. A Special Judge shall try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases as the Provincial Government, or a servant of the Crown empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf, may, by general or special order in writing, direct.

Procedure of Special Judges.

6. (1) A Special Judge may take cognizance of offences without the accused being committed to his Court for trial, and, in trying accused persons, shall follow the procedure prescribed by the Code for the trial of warrant cases by Magistrates:

Provided that a Special Judge shall ordinarily record a memorandum only of the substance of the evidence of each witness examined, may refuse to summon any witness if satisfied after examination of the accused that the evidence of such witness will not be material, and shall not be bound to adjourn any trial for any purpose unless such adjournment is, in his opinion, necessary in the interests of justice.

(2) In matters not coming within the scope of sub-section (1), the provisions of the Code, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Ordinance, shall apply to the proceedings of a Special Judge; and for the purposes of the said provisions the Court of the Special Judge shall be deemed to be a Court of Session.

Sentences by Special Judges.

7. A Special Judge may pass any sentence authorised by law.

Review of convictions.

8. If in any proceedings before a Special Judge-

(a) a person convicted is sentenced to death, or to transportation for life, or to imprisonment for a term of seven years or more, or

(b) though no person is so sentenced, the Special Judge certifies that in his opinion the case has involved questions of special difficulty, whether of law or fact, or is one which for any other reason ought properly to be reviewed, the proceedings shall be submitted for review by a person nominated in this behalf by the Provincial Government, which person shall be chosen from the Judges of the High Court having jurisdiction over the area for which the Special Judge is appointed, and the decision of that person shall be final.

Special Magistrates.

9. Any Presidency Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class who has exercised powers as such for a period of not less than two years may be invested by the Provincial Government with the powers of a Special Magistrate under this Ordinance.

Jurisdiction of Special Magistrates.

10. A Special Magistrate shall try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases other than offences or cases involving offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code with death, as the Provincial Government, or a servant of the Crown empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf, may, by general or special order in writing, direct. XLV of 1860.

Procedure of Special Magistrates.

11. (1) In the trial of any case, a Special Magistrate shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (1) of section 6 for the trial of cases by a Special Judge.

(2) In matters not coming within the scope of sub-section (1), the provisions of the Code, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Ordinance, shall apply to the proceedings of a Special Magistrate; and for the purposes of the said provisions the Special Magistrate shall be deemed to be a Magistrate of the first class.

Sentences by Special Magistrates.

12. (1) A Special Magistrate may pass any sentence authorised by law, except a sentence of death or of transportation or imprisonment exceeding seven years.

(2) If a Special Magistrate is of opinion that an offence under trial by him requires a punishment in excess of that which he is empowered to inflict, he shall stay proceedings and send the case for trial to the Special Judge having jurisdiction in the area, and the Special Judge shall thereupon have jurisdiction to try the case as if it had been made over to him by order in writing made under section 5.

Appeals.

13. (1) Where a Special Magistrate passes a sentence of transportation or imprisonment for a term exceeding two years, an appeal shall lie to the Special Judge having jurisdiction in the area or, if there is no Special Judge for the area, to the High Court in a Presidency-town and elsewhere to the Court of Session.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented within seven days from the date of the sentence.

(3) In disposing of an appeal under this section, a Special Judge shall follow the same procedure and have the same powers as an appellate Court follows and has under the Code.

Distribution of cases.

14. If any question arises whether, under any order made under section 5 or section 10, an offence is triable by a Special Judge or a Special Magistrate, the question shall be referred for decision to the authority which made the order and the decision of that authority shall be final.

Summary Courts.

15. The Provincial Government may, by general or special order in writing, empower any Magistrate appointed under the provisions of the Code to exercise the powers of a Summary Court in any area specified in the order.

Jurisdiction of Summary Courts.

16. (1) A Summary Court shall have power to try such offences or classes of offences, or such cases or classes of cases as the District Magistrate, or in a Presidency-town the Chief Presidency Magistrate, or a servant of the Crown authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate or Chief Presidency Magistrate, may by general or special order direct:

Provided that no person shall be tried by a Summary Court for an offence which is punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding two years, unless it is an offence specified in sub-section (1) of section 260 of the Code.

(2) The District Magistrate or Chief Presidency Magistrate may by general or special order give directions as to the distribution among the Summary Courts within his jurisdiction of cases triable by them under sub-section (1).

Procedure of Summary Courts.

17. In the trial of any case a Summary Court shall, as far as possible, follow the procedure laid down in the Code for the trial of warrant cases, and shall have all the powers conferred by the Code on a Magistrate:

Provided that the Court shall not be required to record more than a memorandum of the evidence or to frame a formal charge:

Provided further that, in the trial of any offence punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, the Court may follow the procedure for the summary trial of cases in which an appeal lies laid down in Chapter XXII of the Code.

Sentences by Summary Courts.

18. Summary Courts may pass any sentence which may be passed by a Magistrate of the first class.

Appeals.

19. (1) If a Summary Court, in a case tried according to the procedure for the trial of warrant cases, passes a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding three months or of fine exceeding two hundred rupees or in a case tried by summary procedure passes a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding one month or of fine exceeding fifty rupees, an appeal shall lie in a Presidency-town to the Chief Presidency Magistrate and elsewhere to the Special Magistrate or other Magistrate of the first class appointed by the District Magistrate of the district in which the Summary Court is situated to hear appeals from that Court.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented within seven days from the date of the sentence.

(3) In disposing of an appeal under this section, the appellate Court shall follow the same procedure and have the same powers as an appellate Court follows and has under the Code.

Procedure when Summary Court considers case triable by another Court.

20. (1) If a Summary Court is of opinion that the offence disclosed is one which it is not empowered to try, it shall send the case for trial to the Special Judge or Special Magistrate empowered to try the case under this Ordinance or, if no such Court has been so empowered, to an ordinary criminal Court having jurisdiction.

(2) If a Summary Court is of opinion that an offence which it is empowered to try should be tried by a Court of superior jurisdiction, or that it requires a punishment in excess of that which the Summary Court is empowered to inflict, it shall stay proceedings and report the case to the District Magistrate or in a Presidency-town to the Chief Presidency Magistrate who may—

(a) direct that the case shall be tried by a Summary Court, or

(b) send it to a Court constituted under this Ordinance having jurisdiction, or to an ordinary criminal Court having jurisdiction, or

(c) report it for the orders of the Provincial Government.

Powers of Special Courts to deal with refractory accused.

21. (1) Where an accused, in a trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance, has, by his voluntary act, rendered himself incapable of appearing before the Court, or resists his production before it, or behaves before it in a persistently disorderly manner, the Court may, at any stage of the trial, by order in writing made after such inquiry as it may think fit, dispense with the attendance of such accused for such period as it may think fit, and proceed with the trial in his absence.

(2) Where a plea is required in answer to a charge from an accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1), such accused shall be deemed not to plead guilty.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) dispensing with the attendance of an accused shall not affect his right of being represented by a pleader at any stage of the trial, or being present in person if he has become capable of appearing, or appears in Court and undertakes to behave in an orderly manner.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code, no finding, sentence or order passed in a trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance shall be held to be illegal by reason of any omission or irregularity whatsoever arising from the absence of any or all of the accused whose attendance has been dispensed with under sub-section (1).

Powers of Special Courts to exclude the public.

22. A Court constituted under this Ordinance may if it thinks fit, order at any stage of a trial that the public generally or any particular persons shall not have access to or be or remain in the room or building used by the Court.

Special rule of evidence.

23. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, when the statement of any person has been recorded by any Magistrate, such statement may be admitted in evidence in any trial before a Court constituted under this Ordinance, if such person is dead or cannot be found or is incapable of giving evidence. 1 of 1872.

Special rule of procedure.

24. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 386 of the Code, where any offender has been sentenced by a Court constituted under this Ordinance to pay a fine, the Court may recover the fine by the issue of a warrant for the levy of the amount by attachment and sale of any property, movable or immovable, of the offender.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 545 of the Code, a Court constituted under this Ordinance may, when imposing a fine on any person convicted by the Court, order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be applied—

(a) in the payment to any person affected by the offence of compensation for any loss, injury or annoyance caused by the offence, or

(b) in the payment of a reward to any person who has given information leading to the detection of the offence or to the conviction of the accused.

Legal practitioners.

25. A Court constituted under this Ordinance shall not be required to grant an adjournment for the purpose of securing the attendance of a legal practitioner, if in the opinion of the Court such adjournment would cause unreasonable delay in the disposal of the case.

Exclusion of interference of other Courts.

28. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Code, or of any other law for the time being in force, or of anything having the force of law by whatsoever authority made or done, there shall, save as provided in this Ordinance, be no appeal from any order or sentence of a Court constituted under this Ordinance and, save as aforesaid, no Court shall have authority to revise such order or sentence, or to transfer any case from any such Court, or to make any order under section 491 of the Code or have any jurisdiction of any kind in respect of any proceedings of any such Court.

Application of ordinary law.

27. The provisions of the Code and of any other law for the time being in force, in so far as they may be applicable and in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall apply to all matters connected with, arising from or consequent upon a trial by special criminal Courts constituted under this Ordinance.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 131L.C.—26th January 1942.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probational and Temporary Release Bill, 1940, sponsored by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C., with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

S. K. D. GUPTA,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probational and Temporary Release Bill, 1940.

(As introduced in the Council by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Bengal Good Conduct Prisoners Probational and Temporary Release Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd August, 1941, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matters recommended by us to be omitted have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters recommended to be inserted have been underlined.

The Committee met on the 24th November, 1941, and concluded their sitting on the 28th November, 1941.

The Bill has not been altered by our recommendation to an extent requiring republication.

The changes made by us are detailed below.

Long title and preamble.—We have made certain drafting changes in the long title and in the preamble of the Bill.

Short title.—We have changed the short title and the year.

Clause 1.—Sub-clause (iii).—We consider that the date on which this Act is to come into force should be left to the discretion of the Provincial Government, who will, after due consideration, publish the necessary notifications in this respect in the Official Gazette. We have accordingly made consequent changes in this clause.

Clause 2.—We have renumbered it as sub-clauses (a) and (b) of clause 2 and have made certain additions and alterations which are of a drafting nature.

We do not consider it advisable that the provisions of this clause should be made applicable to persons sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine or imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, when such imprisonment is not in addition to a substantive sentence of imprisonment.

We have also omitted the existing proviso at the end of this clause in consequence of our insertion of the new clause 6A.

Clauses 3, 4, 5 and 6.—We consider that certain drafting alterations are necessary in all these clauses and have accordingly made the necessary changes.

New clause 6A.—In consequence of our omission of the proviso to clause 2, we have inserted this new clause incorporating therein certain provisions regarding delegation of powers, under this Bill, by the Provincial Government to Commissioner of Police and the District Magistrates within their respective jurisdictions.

Clause 7.—We have made certain drafting changes in this clause which we consider to be necessary.

We are also of opinion that the punishment suggested at the end of this clause (for the offence of escaping from the supervision or authority of the prescribed person, institution, or society while on temporary release), is not sufficient and as such we consider it desirable that the penalty (for the breach of condition of a licence) should be equal to the term of imprisonment awarded in the original sentence which is similar to the penalty prescribed in section 27 of the Prisoners Act, 1900 (Act III of 1900). We have accordingly made consequent changes in this clause.

Clause 8.—We have redrafted this clause.

The signatures of the following members could not be obtained up to the time of printing the report :—

Minute of dissent by Khan Sahib Abul Qunsem, M. L. C.

This Bill appears to be modelled on the United Provinces Prisoners' Release on Probation Act (United Provinces Act No. VIII of 1938). I am not aware if there are in Bengal such secular institutions or societies as are contemplated in clause 2. I am not at all sure if the Bill is likely to be a practicable and useful measure. The chief value of imprisonment as a punishment from the point of view of society is its deterrent effect and it should be seriously considered whether a measure like the present one is not calculated to minimise that effect. It is also worthy of careful consideration whether the provisions of the Bill are not likely to be availed of mainly, if not solely, by educated and well-to-do prisoners.

[NOTE.—All matters omitted by the Select Committee have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters inserted have been underlined.]

THE BENGAL [GOOD CONDUCT PRISONERS PROBATIONAL] RELEASE ON PROBATION AND TEMPORARY RELEASE OF PRISONERS BILL, [1940.] 1941.

to provide for the release [of good conduct prisoners] on probation and temporary release of prisoners [on condition to be imposed by the Provincial Government] in Bengal in certain cases.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the [conditional] release [from prison of good conduct prisoners] on probation and temporary release of prisoners in certain cases before the completion of the term of imprisonment to which they have been sentenced ;

[it] It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. [(i)] (1) This Act may be called the [Good Prisoners Probational Release and Prisoners Temporary Release] Bengal release on Probation and Temporary Release of Prisoners Act, [1940] 1941.

[(ii)] (2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

[(iii)] (3) It shall come into force [at once] on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Power to release a prisoner in certain cases.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898[,] or in any other [enactments] law for the time being in force[,]— Act V of 1898.

(a) [where] Where a person is confined in [a] prison under a sentence of imprisonment and it appears to the Provincial Government from his antecedents or conduct in the prison that he is likely to abstain from crime and lead [useful and peaceful] a peaceful and useful life, if he is released from prison, [or where a person is confined in prison having been sentenced or imprisoned for not less than three years period, and it appears that periodical visits to his home will have a good psychological influence on the prisoner if he is released temporarily from prison,] the Provincial Government may by licence permit him to be released on condition that he [be] is placed under the supervision or authority of a servant of the Crown or a secular institution[,] or of a person or society professing the same religion as the prisoner[,] named in the licence and willing to take charge of him, or [may release a prisoner for temporary period for his visit to his home on such conditions as it think proper.]

(b) Where a person is confined in prison having been sentenced to imprisonment for not less than three years and it appears to the Provincial Government that periodical visits to his home will have a beneficial moral influence on the prisoner, the Provincial Government may release him on licence from time to time for the said purpose for such restricted periods and on such conditions as it may think fit and proper :

The Bengal [Good Conduct Prisoners Probational] Release on Probation and Temporary Release of Prisoners Bill, [1940] 1941.

(Clauses 3—6A.)

[Explanation.—The expression, i.e., sentence of imprisonment in this section shall include imprisonment in default of payment of fine and imprisonment for failure, to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 :]

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine or imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, when such imprisonment is not in addition to a substantive sentence of imprisonment. Act V of 1898.

[Provided that the Provincial Government may delegate this power to any of its responsible officers in writing.]

Period for which a licence is to be in force.

3. A licence granted under the provisions of section 2 shall remain in force until the date on which the person released would, on the full execution of the [order, i.e., warrant authorising his] sentence of imprisonment[,] have been discharged from prison had he not been released on licence[,] or until the licence is revoked[,] whichever is [sooner] earlier, or until the period for which [he] the prisoner was temporarily released expires, as the case may be.

Period of release to be reckoned as imprisonment for computing period of sentence served.

4. The period during which a person is absent from prison under the [provision] provisions of this Act on a licence which is in force shall be [taken as] deemed to be a part of the period of imprisonment to which he was sentenced, for the purpose of computing the period undergone of his sentence and for the purpose of [determining] computing the amount of remission of his sentence which he might earn under any rules relating to such remission.

Form of licence.

5. The form and conditions of a licence [to be granted under] referred to in section 2 shall be prescribed by the Provincial Government by general or special order [and] or by [the] rules [framed for that purpose].

Power to revoke a licence.

6. [(i)] (1) The Provincial Government may at any time revoke a licence granted under section 2, but [generally] no licence shall ordinarily be revoked unless the person to whom a licence has been granted intentionally and wilfully breaks any of the conditions of such licence or unless the revocation of the licence is necessary on ground of public safety and security.

[(ii)] (2) An order of revocation [or cancellation] passed under the provisions of sub-section [(i)] (1) shall specify the date on which the licence shall cease to be operative and shall be served upon the person concerned in such [a] manner as may be prescribed by the Provincial Government by rules made under this Act.

Delegation of powers.

6A. The Provincial Government may delegate its powers under section 2 or section 6 to—

(i) the Commissioner of Police in respect of prisoners who have been sentenced by any court situated within the limits of the ordinary original criminal jurisdiction of the High Court in Calcutta, or

The Bengal [Good Conduct Prisoners Probational] Release on Probation and Temporary Release of Prisoners Bill, [1940] 1941.

(Clauses 7, 8.)

(ii) the District Magistrate in respect of prisoners who have been sentenced by any court situated within the limits of the jurisdiction of such District Magistrate.

Released absconders to be punishable.

7. (1) If any person escapes from the supervision or authority of a servant of the Crown or secular institution, or a society or person in whose charge he has been placed under the provisions of section [6] 2, or if any person whose licence has been revoked under the provisions of section 6, or if any person who was temporarily released and whose period of temporary release has expired, fails without lawful excuse, the burden of proving which shall be upon him, to return to the prison from which he was released[,] on or before the date specified in the order of revocation or of temporary release, such person shall, on conviction by a magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment [of] for a term which may extend to [one year] the term of imprisonment awarded in the original sentence or with fine or with both.

(2) An offence punishable under the provisions of sub-section [(i)] (1) shall be deemed to be a [cognisable] cognizable offence within the meaning of clause (f) of sub-section [(i)] (1) of section 4 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. Act V of 1898.

Rules.

8. (1) The Provincial Government may make rules [consistent with] for carrying out the purposes of this Act[—].

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide—

(1) [For] for prescribing the form of, and the conditions [of] to be contained in, licences on which prisoners may be released[.],

(1a) for prescribing the manner in which an order of revocation of a licence shall be served on the person whose licence is revoked,

(2) [For] for defining the powers and duties of [Government officer,] servants of the Crown, societies, persons under whose authority or supervision conditionally [or temporarily] released prisoners may be kept.

[(3) Generally for carrying out into effects all the purposes of the Act.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is an admitted fact that the persons are sent to prison with a view to their reformation. The old theory of punishment for punishment's sake has long been discarded. It is a generally accepted view of the civilized world that prisoners should be given every opportunity, every possible encouragement to reform themselves while undergoing their terms of sentence in prison. This simple Bill has been framed with a view to empower the Provincial Government or any officer to whom the authority of the Provincial Government is delegated to release the good conduct person on licence to release the prisoners temporarily in order to give them opportunity to see their relatives at home. There are similar provisions in sections 21 to 27 of the Prisoners Act of 1900, but these provisions are confined to cases of penal servitude only and are only applicable in cases of European and Americans only. Hence there is a great need of an Act like that of the proposed Act in Bengal.

Temporary Allowances.

Award of temporary allowance.

5. Where a qualifying injury has incapacitated a person for work for a period of not less than seven consecutive days that person shall be entitled to be awarded in respect of that injury an allowance (in this Scheme referred to as a temporary allowance) in accordance with the following provisions of this Scheme.

Conditions of payment of temporary allowance.

6. A temporary allowance shall be payable only for so long as the person to whom it has been awarded is incapacitated for work by the injury in respect of which it has been awarded, and shall in no case be continued after the end of the sixth month from the date on which the injury was sustained.

Mode of payment.

7. Temporary allowances shall be paid half-monthly in arrears on the 1st and 16th of each month. If the incapacity for work ceases during a half-monthly period, no payment shall be made unless during that period the incapacity has existed for not less than seven days, in which case the payment shall be proportionately reduced.

Rates of temporary allowances.

8. Temporary allowances shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32 of this Scheme be payable at the following rates, namely:—

(a) where the injury is one for which relief may be given on the higher scale, at the half-monthly rate of nine rupees;

(b) in the case of any other injury, at the half-monthly rate of six rupees and twelve annas.

Temporary allowance not to be drawn with disability pension.

9. A temporary allowance shall cease to be payable to a person on the date on which a disability pension under Part III of this Scheme becomes payable to him.

Failure to draw temporary allowance.

10. Any payment by way of temporary allowance not drawn within three months from the date on which it might first have been drawn shall cease thereafter to be payable:

Provided that if the Claims Officer is satisfied that there were good and sufficient reasons for the failure to draw the payment, he may condone the delay.

Awards in cases to which clause 30 applies.

11. When a person who, but for the provisions of clause 30 of this Scheme, would have been entitled to be awarded a temporary allowance, reaches the age of fifteen, before the end of the sixth month from the date on which the qualifying injury was sustained, he shall, subject to all the provisions of this Chapter, then become entitled to be awarded a temporary allowance.

PART III.

DISABILITY PENSIONS TO PERSONS WHO HAVE SUSTAINED INJURIES CAUSING SERIOUS AND PROLONGED DISABLEMENT.

Disability pensions.

12. Where a qualifying injury sustained by a person causes him serious and prolonged disablement, he shall be entitled to be awarded in respect of that injury a pension (in this Scheme referred to as a disability pension), in accordance with the following provisions of this Scheme.

Assessment of degree of disablement.

13. (1) For the purpose of assessing the rate of disability pension, disablements shall be expressed in percentages as set forth in the Schedule II to this Scheme. Where there is more than one disablement the total disablement shall be expressed as the sum of the disablements, so however as not in any case to exceed 100 per cent.

(2) When the wound, injury or illness causing the disablement is one not provided for in the Schedule II to this Scheme, the disablement shall be estimated by a competent medical authority at the percentage shown in the said Schedule most closely corresponding to it.

Rates of disability pensions.

14. (1) Where the disablement resulting from a qualifying injury is expressed or estimated as 20 per cent., or over, a disability pension shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32, be awarded at the following rates, namely:—

Where the percentage of disablement is	If the injury is one for which relief may be given on the higher scale.	If the injury is not one for which relief may be given on the higher scale.
	Rs. per mensem.	Rs. per mensem.
100	18	13 8 0
90	16	12 0 0
80	14	10 8 0
70	13	9 12 0
60	11	8 4 0
50	9	6 12 0
20 to 40	8	6 0 0

(2) Where the disablement is not more than 50 per cent., the Claims Officer may, if he is satisfied that the injured person is not debarred from all means of livelihood, substitute for the disability pension a lump sum payment calculated at 70 times the monthly payment specified in the foregoing sub-clause.

Commencement of disability pension, revision of award after two years or otherwise.

15. (1) If before the end of the sixth month from the date on which the injury was received, the competent medical authority certifies that the disablement caused to a person by a qualifying injury is permanent and incapable of diminution, the Claims Officer may at once award to that person, in accordance with sub-clause (1) of clause 14, a disability pension payable for life, or in accordance with sub-clause (2) of clause 14, a lump sum payment.

(2) If at the end of the six months from the date on which the injury was received, or at any time within those six months when the injured person ceases to be entitled to a temporary allowance, it remains uncertain whether the disablement is permanent and incapable of diminution, the pension shall in the first instance be awarded for two years only, and, on the expiry of those two years, shall be awarded for life in accordance with the assessment then made by the competent medical authority of the percentage of disablement subsisting.

(3) Where a disability pension, but not a lump sum payment in substitution therefor, has been awarded, and thereafter the disablement increases to a higher percentage than that on which the award was based, and such increase is certified by a competent medical authority to be attributable to the original qualifying injury, the Claims Officer may increase the disability pension to the appropriate higher rate with effect from the date on which the increased disablement is established by the certificate of the competent medical authority.

(4) Where a disability pension, but not a lump sum payment in substitution therefor, has been awarded, and thereafter the disablement decreases to a lower percentage than that on which the award was based, the Claims Officer may decrease the disability pension to the appropriate lower rate with effect from the date on which the decreased disablement is established by the certificate of the competent medical authority.

Mode of payment.

16. Disability pensions shall be payable quarterly in arrears:

Provided that if the Claims Officer considers that this course may result in hardship in any particular case he may order that the pension shall be payable monthly in arrears.

Cancellation of award on failure to draw pension.

17. (1) Where a person to whom a disability pension has been awarded, fails to draw that pension for a continuous period of not less than twelve months, the Claims Officer shall cancel the award, and no payment of the arrears of that pension shall be made.

(2) Where a person, to whom a lump sum payment has been awarded under sub-clause (2) of clause 14 fails to draw that sum within twelve months from the date of the award, the Claims Officer shall cancel the award and no further claim to pension or to lump sum payment shall be entertained:

Provided that if the Claims Officer is satisfied that there were good and sufficient reasons for the failure referred to in sub-clause (1) of this sub-clause, he may condone the failure.

Awards in cases to which clause 30 applies.

18. When a person who, but for the provisions of clause 30 of this Scheme, should have been entitled to be awarded a disability pension, reaches the age of fifteen, he shall then become entitled to be awarded a disability pension, the amount of the award being based on his disablement as assessed at the time he reached the age of fifteen.

PART IV.

Family Pensions and Children's Allowances.

Family pensions and children's allowances, purpose and amount.

19. (1) When a person dies as the result of a qualifying injury, there shall be payable, in accordance with the following provisions of this Scheme—

(a) to one surviving eligible member of his family a pension, in this Scheme referred to as a family pension, and

(b) to each of his legitimate children an allowance in this Scheme referred to as a child's allowance.

(2) A family pension, though payable to one surviving eligible member of a family only, is intended for the support of all surviving eligible members of the family.

(3) The amount of a family pension shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32 of this Scheme, be eight rupees monthly.

(4) The amount of the child's allowance shall, subject to the provisions of clause 32 of this Scheme, be two rupees monthly for each child so long as a family pension continues to be paid to any surviving eligible member of the family, and three rupees monthly for each child if no family pension is being paid.

(5) If the person to whom a family pension is payable is a minor, the pension shall be paid for the benefit of the eligible members of the family to the legal guardian of such a person.

(6) A child's allowance payable to a minor child shall, unless the Claims Officer otherwise directs, be paid for the benefit of the child to the person to whom the family pension under the award is payable, or if such person is himself a minor or if no family pension is payable under the award, to the legal guardian of the child.

Members of a family who are eligible.

20. "Eligible member of a family" means, in relation to a person dying as the result of a qualifying injury,—

(i) his widow lawfully married by a valid ceremony;

(ii) his father;

(iii) his mother;

(iv) a legitimate son but not an adopted son;

(v) a legitimate daughter but not an adopted daughter;

provided in each case that none of the conditions necessary for eligibility under clause 21 is infringed.

Conditions of eligibility.

21. The following are the conditions governing the eligibility of the five classes of persons mentioned in clause 20:—

(1) A widow shall not be eligible if she remarries, unless such marriage is with her deceased husband's brother and she continues to live a communal life with, or to contribute to the support of, other living eligible members.

(2) The father shall not be eligible if at the time of the qualifying injury he is below the age of 50, unless he is physically or mentally unable to support himself, but he becomes eligible on attaining the age of 50.

(3) The mother shall not be eligible if at the time of the qualifying injury the father of the deceased is still alive, but shall become eligible on his death for so long as she remains unmarried. If she is a widow at the time of the qualifying injury she shall continue to be eligible only so long as she remains unmarried. If at the time of the qualifying injury she was already remarried to a husband other than the father of the deceased she shall be eligible and shall continue to be eligible if thereafter widowed for so long as she remains unmarried.

(4) A son shall not be eligible if he is above the age of 15 unless he is physically or mentally unable to support himself.

(5) A daughter shall not be eligible, if she has a husband living, or marries.

Family pension by whom to be received.

22. (1) Where there are surviving eligible members of more than one of the classes specified in the list in clause 20, the family pension shall be payable to the member specified earliest in that list, of two or more widows the longest married taking precedence, and of two or more children the eldest taking precedence.

(2) Where there is no widow surviving and the family pension has not been made payable to the father of the deceased solely because the father had not yet reached the age of fifty, it shall unless it has under the provisions of sub-clause (3) of this clause ceased to be payable, be made payable to him on his attaining the age of fifty, subject to the sub-clause next following.

(3) When the member to whom the family pension is payable under the foregoing provisions of this clause dies or ceases to be eligible, then, whether there are other eligible members surviving or not, the family pension shall cease altogether to be payable except as provided in clause 25.

(4) No claim to receive a family pension shall be entertained if made by a member who has, by the time the claim is preferred, already ceased to be eligible.

Date from which family pension takes effect.

23. A family pension when awarded shall become payable as from the day following that on which the qualifying injury causing the death was sustained:

Provided that where the family member, to whom the pension would have been payable on that day, has, before the Claims Officer has made the award, died or ceased to be eligible and the pension has consequently become payable to another member, the pension shall be payable to the last mentioned member as from the day following that on which the first mentioned member died or ceased to be eligible, and the arrears from the day following that on which the qualifying injury occurred up to the day on which the first mentioned member died or ceased to be eligible shall, subject to the provisions governing the payment of belated claims, be paid to the first mentioned member or his estate:

Provided further that if, before the Claims Officer has made the award, all the members who were eligible on the day following that on which the qualifying injury occurred have died or ceased to be eligible, the Claims Officer shall have full power to dispose of any arrears as he may think fit.

Division of family

24. (1) If the Claims Officer is satisfied, on application made to him, that the member to whom a family pension is payable refuses to contribute reasonably to the support of the other eligible members of the family or that a family pension payable to a child is not being utilised for the benefit of the other eligible member of the family, he may divide the pension at his discretion among all the eligible members and make it payable as so divided to each member individually.

(2) Any such division shall not affect the provisions contained in sub-clause (3) of clause 22 but, so long as the member to whom the pension is originally awarded continues to be alive and eligible, if any member receiving one of the divided portions of the pension dies or ceases to be eligible, his share shall be added to the amount distributable to the member or members still surviving and eligible.

(3) A division under this clause shall not ordinarily be made at the instance of children in receipt of children's allowances, but the Claims Officer may even in such a case at his discretion make a division of the family pension to avert special hardship.

Continuance of family pension.

25. (1) A family pension which ceases to be payable under sub-clause (3) of clause 22 may, either in whole or in part, be continued by the Claims Officer or be made again payable, if he is satisfied that by the cessation of the pension the father or mother of the deceased or both who would but for the operation of that sub-clause have been at the time eligible members of the family, are left destitute.

(2) If the Claims Officer decides to continue or restore a family pension under the foregoing provisions of this clause, the pension shall be payable, from such date as the Claims Officer may fix, not being earlier than the date on which the application for continuance or restoration is first received by the Claims Officer, to the father if living and would have been eligible at the time but for the operation of sub-clause (3) of clause 22 or, if the father is not living, to the mother if she would have been eligible at the time but for the operation of these sub-clauses; but the amount of the pension shall be reduced by the amount of any income from permanent sources available to the father or mother or both.

(3) A family pension so continued or restored shall cease altogether to be payable when the person to whom it is continued or restored dies or ceases to be eligible.

Duration of payment of children's allowances.

26. A child's allowance shall cease to be payable—

(a) to a male on his attaining the age of 15, and

(b) to a female on her attaining the age of 16 or on her marriage, whichever of these dates is the later.

Provided that the Claims Officer may, if satisfied that the person to whom the allowance is payable is physically or mentally unable to support himself, continue the allowance, so however that it shall cease to be payable to a female on her marriage.

Mode of payment of family pensions and children's allowances.

27. Family pensions and children's allowance shall be paid quarterly in arrears:

Provided that, if the Claims Officer considers that this course might result in hardship in any particular case, he may order that the pension or allowance shall be payable monthly in arrears.

No award when death occurs more than seven y after injury.

28. No award of family pension or child's allowance shall be made in any case where the death giving rise to the claim occurs more than seven years after the date on which the qualifying injury causing the death was sustained.

29. Where a family pension or a child's allowance which has been awarded has not been drawn for a continuous period of not less than 12 months the Claims Officer shall cancel the award, and no payment of the arrears of that pension or allowance shall be made:

Provided that if the Claims Officer is satisfied that there were good and sufficient reasons for the failure to draw the pension or allowance during each period he may condone the failure.

PART V.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO AWARDS GENERALLY.

No awards in respect of war injuries to gainfully occupied persons under fifteen years of age.

30. No payment under this Scheme shall, save as provided in clauses 11 and 18 be made in respect of any war injury sustained by a gainfully occupied person who is under the age of fifteen.

Applications for awards.

31. (1) Except where the Claims Officer in any special case otherwise directs, an award under this Scheme shall not be made unless an application for that award is made in the manner prescribed by the regulations made under this Scheme and within the following periods, namely:—

(a) where the claim is for a temporary allowance to a person incapacitated for work, a period of three months from the date of the qualifying injury, or if the incapacity first supervened after that period, a period of three months from the inception of the incapacity;

(b) where the claim is for a disability pension, a period of three months from the date of the qualifying injury, or if the injury necessitated immediate treatment in hospital, a period of three months from the date of discharge from hospital;

(c) where the claim is for a family pension or child's allowance, a period of three months from the date of the death of the person whose death gave rise to the claim.

(2) The Claims Officer may refuse to entertain any application for any allowance or pension under this scheme in respect of a qualifying injury sustained by a person who has, without sufficient cause, failed to present himself for treatment at a hospital, dispensary or first-aid post.

Limitations on amount of awards.

32. (1) The amount awarded to a person as temporary allowance when incapacitated or as disability pension when disabled shall be subject to the following modifications, namely:—

(a) where such person is a woman, the amount shall be reduced by 20 per cent.,

(b) while such person is under the age of 18, the amount which would otherwise be payable shall be reduced by 25 per cent.,

(c) while such person is under treatment in a hospital, the amount which would otherwise be payable shall be reduced by 20 per cent.

(2) The amount awarded as family pension or children's pensions or both in respect of a person dying as the result of a qualifying injury shall not exceed the amount which might have been awarded to that person had he qualified for a disability pension assessed on a disablement of 100 per cent.

Payment under this Scheme not to be drawn in addition to other payment from public funds.

33. Where the person entitled to a temporary allowance, disability pension, family pension or child's allowance in respect of a qualifying injury is in receipt of a pension or allowance from public funds paid to him by reason of his having sustained that qualifying injury or as the case may be by reason of the death of another person as the result of that qualifying injury, he shall be allowed to draw only the amount, if any, by which the pension or allowance to which he is entitled under this scheme exceeds the pension or allowance referred to, received by him from public funds.

Two payments under this Scheme not to be drawn by same person.

34. No person in receipt of an allowance or pension under this Scheme shall be allowed to draw another allowance or pension of a different kind under this Scheme until the allowance or pension previously drawn is surrendered.

Awards when not to be made.

35. (1) No award under this Scheme shall be made in respect of—

(a) an injury sustained whether in or outside British India by a person resident outside British India, or

(b) an injury sustained by a person ordinarily resident in British India while absent from British India for personal, domestic or pleasure purposes:

Provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall preclude the making of an award in respect of—

(i) a war injury sustained by a civil defence volunteer, or

(ii) a war injury sustained by a person ordinarily resident in British India while travelling by sea or by air between any one place in British India and any other place in British India, or

(iii) a war injury sustained in British India by a person ordinarily resident outside British India.

(2) The Claims Officer may withhold or cancel the award of any payment under this Scheme, if he is satisfied that the person to whom the award might be or has been made is or has become ordinarily resident outside British India.

Effect of contributory negligence.

36. Where the qualifying injury, or where the incapacity for work, disablement or death resulting from a qualifying injury is shown to the satisfaction of the Claims Officer to be mainly attributable to the negligence or misconduct of the person sustaining the injury, the Claims Officer may withhold or cancel any award which might be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of their injury or may reduce the amount of the award.

Effect of desertion of post by member of civil defence organisation.

37. When the person sustaining a qualifying injury is a member of a civil defence organisation and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Claims Officer that such person when required by Government order to be present in a certain locality, or at a certain post failed to be present or being present failed to remain in that locality or at that post as the case may be, the Claims Officer may withhold or cancel any award which might be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of that injury.

Effect of refusal to undergo medical treatment or operation.

38. Where a person who has sustained a qualifying injury refuses to undergo medical treatment or an operation calculated to restore his health or to cure or reduce a disablement caused by the qualifying injury, and a competent medical authority certifies that such refusal is in the circumstances unreasonable, then:—

(a) if the person dies, and a competent medical authority certifies that the death was due to the refusal to undergo medical treatment or an operation, no family pension or child's allowance shall be awarded;

(b) if a competent medical authority certifies that medical treatment or an operation will cure the disablement caused by the qualifying injury, no disability pension shall be awarded; and

(c) if a competent medical authority certifies that medical treatment or an operation will reduce the disablement to a lower percentage, a disability pension appropriate to that lower percentage only shall be awarded.

Obligation to submit to medical examination.

39. (1) Any person in receipt of a temporary allowance or disability pension shall, if required by the Claims Officer by notice in writing so to do, submit himself for medical examination by the competent medical authority:

Provided that a person shall not be required so to present himself—

(a) if in receipt of a temporary allowance, at intervals of less than two months, or

(b) if in receipt of a disability pension which has not been awarded for life, at intervals of less than six months, or

(c) if in receipt of a disability pension which has been awarded for life, at intervals of less than two years.

(2) Where any person refuses or, without reasonable cause, fails to submit himself for medical examination when required so to do under sub-clause (1), the Claims Officer may cancel with effect from the date of such refusal or failure, the award of allowance or pension made to that person.

(3) Where the award has been cancelled under sub-clause (2), the Claims Officer may refuse to entertain any subsequent application for an allowance or pension under the Scheme in respect of the injury for which the cancelled award was made.

Where payee is incapable of managing his own affairs.

40. If the person to whom a pension or allowance under this Scheme has been awarded has not attained the age of eighteen years, or if he is, in the opinion of the Claims Officer, mentally infirm so as to be incapable of managing his own affairs, or if in any other case the Claims Officer considers it in the interest of that person, the Claims Officer, may either of his own motion or on application made to him, pay the pension or allowance to any other person whom the Claims Officer thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the person to whom the award has been made, or may apply the amount in any other manner for his benefit.

Cancellation of award on conviction for an offence.

41. Where a person to whom a pension or allowance under this Scheme might be or has been awarded is convicted by a Court of an offence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment or detention in a Borstal School, the Claims Officer may withhold or cancel the award.

Claims Officer's power to review and alter awards.

42. The Claims Officer may at any time review any award made under this Scheme and if it appears to him by reason of a mistake of fact or a change in the condition or circumstances of the person to whom the award was made or for any other reason whatsoever it is expedient so to do, he may increase or reduce the rate of any pension or allowance awarded or cancel the award or make a fresh award;

Provided that no pension or allowance shall be increased beyond the limits specified in, or for the purposes of, this Scheme.

Decisions under this Scheme.

43. All matters falling to be decided under this Scheme in connection with the award of payments under the Scheme shall, where other specific provision is not made in this Scheme, be decided by the Claims Officer; but in all matters relating to the extent or effect of injuries, the existence or non-existence of incapacity for work, and degrees of disablement, the Claims Officer shall decide in accordance with the opinion of, or a certificate given by, a competent medical authority.

Power of Central Government to vary rates.

44. The Central Government may at any time by notification in the official Gazette alter the rate of payments which may be awarded under this Scheme.

Exceptional cases of hardship.

45. Exceptional cases of hardship not covered by the provisions of this Scheme may be submitted by the Claims Officer to the Central Government which may make such orders as it thinks fit.

Payment for medical and surgical treatment.

46. The Central Government or any officer authorised by the Central Government may, in accordance with any regulations made in this behalf, make payments for medical and surgical treatment provided for persons who have sustained qualifying injuries.

(e) It shall be the duty of the police to ascertain the name and other particulars of all persons who are killed or who die before admission to hospital and report the circumstances to the Claims Officer, and every police officer shall make such further reports as the Claims Officer may from time to time call upon him to do.

(c) All such payments shall from time to time be endorsed on the award by the Postmaster.

Transfer of place of payment.

12. On an application made to him by or on behalf of the holder of an award of any pension or allowance, the Claims Officer may, for sufficient reason, transfer the place of payment and shall endorse the award accordingly. 13. (a) With every award when presented for payment, there shall be produced a certificate of life pertaining to the beneficiary or beneficiaries under the award, signed by a Gazetted Officer of Government, a Magistrate or a Police Officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector. Where the claimant is undergoing treatment as an in-patient at a hospital or dispensary, the certificate shall be signed by the person in charge thereof:

Provided that where a beneficiary is present at the time of payment of an allowance or pension under the Scheme, no life certificate in respect of him shall be required but his identity shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster.

(b) On every occasion when the award of a family pension or of a family pension and children's allowance is presented for payment, the person to whom the same is payable shall give a certificate in Form H.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 7th October 1941.

No. F. 126-I/41-A.—Under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules, the Governor General has been pleased to order the publication in the Gazette of India of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, and the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly published for general information:—

L. A. BILL No. 25 OF 1941.

A Bill to provide for the grant of weekly holidays to persons employed in shops, commercial establishments, restaurants and theatres.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the grant of weekly holidays to persons employed in shops, commercial establishments, restaurants and theatres;

It is hereby enacted as follows:

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Weekly Holidays Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force in a Province or in a specified area within a Province only if the Provincial Government by notification in the official Gazette so directs.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "establishment" includes a commercial establishment, shop, restaurant and theatre;

(b) "day" means a period of twenty-four hours beginning at midnight;

(c) "commercial establishment" means any establishment in which there is carried on for profit the trade or business of an advertising, commission, forwarding or other commercial agency, or of insurance, banking, brokerage or exchange, or of a joint stock company, and includes the clerical department of an industrial or commercial undertaking, and any other establishment or class of establishments which the Provincial Government may by notification in the official Gazette declare to be a commercial establishment or class of commercial establishments for the purposes of this Act, but does not include a restaurant, shop or theatre, or a factory (except the clerical department thereof) subject to the Factories Act, 1934, or a mine subject to the Indian Mines Act, 1923, or a railway as defined in the Indian Railways Act, 1890, or any establishment in which the hours of work are regulated by any law for the time being in force other than this Act; XXV 1934. IV of 1923. IX of 1890.

(d) "restaurant" means any premises where refreshments are supplied for consumption on the premises but does not include a restaurant attached to a theatre;

(e) "shop" includes any premises where any retail trade or business is carried on, including the business of a barber or hair dresser, and retail sales by auction, but excluding the sale of programmes, catalogues and other similar sales at theatres;

(f) "theatre" includes any premises intended principally or wholly for the presentation of moving pictures, dramatic performances or stage entertainments;

(g) "week" means a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday.

Closing of shops and commercial establishments.

3. (1) Every shop and commercial establishment shall remain entirely closed on Sunday, or on such other day of the week in lieu of Sunday as in respect of such shop or commercial establishment may be fixed by the Provincial Government by general or special order.

(2) The Provincial Government may, for the purposes of this section, fix different days for different classes of shops and commercial establishments, or different days for different areas, or different days for different times of the year.

Weekly holidays in restaurants and theatres.

4. Every person employed otherwise than in a confidential capacity or in a position of management in any restaurant or theatre shall be allowed in each week a holiday of one whole day.

Additional half-day closing or holiday.

5. The Provincial Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, require in respect of shops and commercial establishments or any specified class of either or both that they shall be closed at one o'clock in the afternoon of one week-day in every week in addition to the day provided for by section 4 and, in respect of theatres and restaurants or any specified class of either or both, that every person employed therein otherwise than in a confidential capacity or in a position of management shall be allowed in each week an additional holiday of one half-day commencing at one o'clock in the afternoon.

Payment of wages.

6. No deduction or abatement of the wages of any person employed in an establishment to which this Act applies shall be made on account of any day or part of a day on which the establishment has remained closed or a holiday has been allowed in accordance with sections 3, 4 and 5, and if such person is employed on the basis that he would not ordinarily receive wages for such day or part of a day he shall none the less be paid for such day or part of a day the wages he would have drawn had the establishment not remained closed or the holiday not been allowed on that day or part of a day.

Inspectors.

7. (1) The Provincial Government may appoint persons to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act within such local limits as it may assign to each such person.

(2) Every inspector appointed under this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. XLV of 1860.

Powers of inspectors.

8. (1) Subject to any rules made in this behalf by the Provincial Government, an inspector may, within the local limits for which he is appointed,—

(a) enter and remain in any establishment to which this Act applies with such assistants, if any, being servants of the Crown, as he thinks fit;

(b) make such examination of any such establishment and of any record, register or notice maintained therein, and take on the spot or otherwise such evidence of any person as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act;

(c) exercise such other powers as may necessary for carrying out the purposes of Act.

(2) Any person having the custody of any record, register or notice shall be bound to produce it when so required by the inspector, but no person shall be compellable to answer any question if the answer may tend directly or indirectly to criminate himself.

Penalties

9. In the event of any contravention of the provisions of section 3, of section 4, of a requirement imposed by notification under section 5, of section 6, or of the rules made under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 10, the proprietor or other person responsible for the management of the establishment in which such contravention takes place shall be punishable with fine which may extend, in the case of the first offence, to twenty-five rupees, and, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, to two hundred and fifty rupees.

Rules.

10. (1) The Provincial Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) define the persons who shall be deemed to be employed in a confidential capacity or in a position of management for the purpose of sections 4 and 5;

(b) regulate the powers and duties of inspectors;

(c) require registers and records to be maintained and notices to be displayed in establishments to which this Act applies and prescribe the form and contents thereof.

Power of exemption and suspension.

11. The Central Government in respect of establishments under its control, and the Provincial Government in respect of all other establishments within the Province may, subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit to impose, exempt any establishment to which this Act applies from all or any specified provisions of this Act, and may, on any special occasion in connection with a fair or festival or a succession of public holidays, suspend for a specified period the operation of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It was suggested at the first Conference of Labour Ministers held in January, 1940 that the Central Government should consider the question of passing an enabling measure giving Provincial Governments power by notification to provide for the compulsory closing of shops and commercial establishments for a minimum period of one day in the week, leaving it to the Provincial Governments to provide an extra half-holiday, if they considered it necessary. The present Bill has been drafted after consultation with Provincial Governments and further discussion at the second Conference of Labour Ministers held in January, 1941. The Bill will not come into effect in any Province until the Government of that Province directs its application by notification, either to the whole Province or any specified area within it. A further notification of the Provincial Government will be necessary to bring into application the provisions about an extra half-holiday. It is considered desirable that Provincial Governments should have power to introduce by notification certain minimum provisions on uniform lines as embodied in the Bill. The Bill provides for payment of wages for holidays declared under it. Certain classes of persons and establishments are excluded from its purview. It proposes to leave power with the Central Government in respect of establishments under its control and with Provincial Governments in respect of all other establishments within the Province, to make exceptions from or temporary suspension of the provisions of the proposed Act.

Irrigation.

CALCUTTA, THE 25TH AUGUST 1941.

RESOLUTION No. 1-I.

Read the Annual Irrigation Revenue Report for the year 1939-40.

The gross expenditure on capital account during the year was Rs. 15,080. After the deduction of receipts and recoveries on capital account amounting to Rs. 61,032, the net capital expenditure was minus Rs. 45,952 as against minus Rs. 29,238 in the previous year. The gross capital expenditure was incurred almost wholly on residual works of the Damodar Canal and the recovery was mainly on account of the hire charges earned by the dredger "Ronaldshay".

The expenditure on revenue account amounted to Rs. 34,17,247 during the year under review as against Rs. 34,43,420 of the previous year. Of the total, a sum of Rs. 4,94,090 was spent on irrigation works proper, the principal items being the Damodar (including the Eden), Bakreswar and Midnapore Canals and the contour survey in Central and Western Bengal and the preparation of a detailed estimate for the Howrah-Hooghly Flushing Scheme. A sum of Rs. 2,20,159 represents mainly the value of work of dredging the storm water outfall channel carried out on behalf of the Corporation of Calcutta out of contributions made by them. The rest of the expenditure on revenue account was on navigation, embankment and drainage works. The expenditure on navigation was mainly for the upkeep of the five suction dredgers, the maintenance of the Hijili Tidal Canal in Midnapore and of the existing steamer and boat routes from Calcutta to Eastern Bengal and Assam and the conservancy of some of the principal navigable rivers of the province, such as the Ganges, the Dhalleswari and the Buriganga. New works in progress during the year under review included the Bhairab Scheme in Jessore, the Satkhira Khal Scheme in Khulna, the Jaliabari Khal Scheme in Faridpur, the Bhatui River Scheme in Nadia and the scheme for the flood protection on the right bank of the Damodar river in Burdwan.

The total revenue receipts during the year were Rs. 13,59,302 as against Rs. 17,16,573 of the previous year. There was a decline in receipt to the extent of about two lakhs from the Damodar Canal including the Eden Canal and to the extent of more than one and a quarter lakhs from the Midnapore Canal, Calcutta and Eastern Canals and the Madaripur Bil Route.

The rainfall was normal and well distributed throughout Bengal except in some parts of the eastern districts where it was abnormal with the result that there were floods in certain areas and some damages were done to crops. Floods also occurred in certain parts of Western Bengal, viz., in the Dwarka and Ajay basins and in the lower reaches of the Bhagirathi, the Jalangi and the Mathabhanga rivers and in the low areas served by the Midnapore Canal. The rainfall was not evenly distributed in the areas served by the Damodar Canal during the kharif season. Due to scanty rainfall in the early part of July and in the months of September and October there was a keen demand for canal water in those areas. There was no difficulty in meeting this demand. On the whole, the outturn of crops was not unsatisfactory.

The total area irrigated by the Damodar, Eden, Bakreswar, Midnapore, Salbundh, Amjore and Kashianalla canals was 234,377 acres compared with 113,405 acres in the previous year. There was an increase of 106,000 acres (in round figures) in the area commanded by the Damodar Canal which is due to the area being brought back under the operation of the Development Act. There was also an increase of 11,000 odd acres in the Midnapore Canal area and this was due to the reduction of water rate by 8 annas per acre in that area.

The contour survey of certain areas in Central and Western Bengal was completed during the year under review. It is expected that on the data obtained by such surveys, it will be possible to frame projects for schemes which will be remunerative and suitable for execution under the Bengal Development Act. One such scheme, viz., the irrigation and flushing project for an area of 916 square miles lying in the districts of Burdwan, Hooghly and Howrah, has already been prepared.

The dredger "Ronaldshay" was engaged for 224 days during the year in connection with the work of the Corporation of Calcutta referred to above and earned a hire charge of Rs. 89,600. The dredger "Foyers" was engaged for 50 days in all and the amount of hire earned by her was Rs. 11,100. The other dredgers remained idle throughout the year.

During the year under review sanction was accorded to the expansion and reorganisation of the department on a permanent basis with three circles, eleven divisions and twenty-eight subdivisions.

Rules for the Conduct of Elections.

Definitions.

1. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "the Act" means the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923 (Bengal Act III of 1923);

(b) "the Election Officer" means such officer as the Provincial Government may by notification in the Calcutta Gazette appoint to perform the functions of the Election Officer under these rules.

Appointment of Returning Officers.

2. (1) The Election Officer may appoint as many Returning Officers as he thinks fit, provided that there shall not be more than one Returning Officer for the same constituency and provided also that no person shall be appointed as the Returning Officer of any constituency of which he is an elector.

(2) The Election Officer may at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, remove any Returning Officer appointed by him and appoint another in his place, and may also appoint a substitute to act as Returning Officer during any temporary disability of the Returning Officer.

Nominations.

3. The Provincial Government shall appoint—

(a) a date not less than one month before the date fixed for the general elections under sub-section (3) of section 45 of the Act by which the nomination of candidates shall be made; and

(b) a further date not later than the seventh day after the first mentioned date for the scrutiny of nominations.

4. Nominations shall be made by means of a nomination paper in Form I annexed to these rules copies of which will be obtainable at the Central Municipal Office. Each candidate shall be nominated by separate nomination paper.

5. On or before the date so appointed for the nomination of candidates, each candidate shall either in person or by his proposer or by his seconder or by his election agent, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, deliver to the Returning Officer or to such other person as may be authorised in this behalf a nomination paper completed in Form I annexed to these rules and subscribed by the candidate himself as assenting to the nomination and by two persons as proposer and seconder whose names are registered on the electoral roll of the constituency for which the candidate is nominated:

Provided that a nomination paper signed by a duly authorised attorney on behalf of the candidate shall, for the purpose of this rule, be held to be signed by the candidate himself as assenting to his nomination.

6. Any person whose name is registered on the electoral roll of the constituency, and who is not subject to any disability as set forth in section 22 of the Act may subscribe in all, whether as proposer or seconder, as many nomination papers as there are vacancies to be filled.

7. (1) Every nomination paper delivered under rule 5 shall be accompanied by a declaration in writing subscribed by the candidate in the manner laid down in sub-section (2) of section 27 of the Act.

(2) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by another declaration that the candidate has selected a symbol from the list specified in Schedule A to these rules; no candidate shall be deemed to be duly nominated unless such declaration is delivered along with the nomination paper.

8. Any nomination paper which is not received before 5 o'clock in the afternoon on the date appointed by the Provincial Government under clause (a) of rule 3 shall be rejected.

9. On the presentation of a nomination paper, the Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the names and numbers on the electoral roll of the candidate and his proposer and seconder as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the electoral roll. Where necessary he shall direct that the former be amended so as to be in accordance with the latter.

It shall be also competent for the Returning Officer to alter or amend any entry in the nomination paper presented to him with a view to ensuring accurate and adequate publication under rule 10 of the names of candidates and of persons who have subscribed the nomination paper as proposer and seconder.

10. The Returning Officer or other person authorised shall, on receiving a nomination paper under rule 5, inform the person or persons delivering the same of the date, hour and place appointed for the scrutiny of nomination, and shall enter in the nomination paper its serial number and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hour at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him; and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office a notice of the nomination containing descriptions, similar to those contained in the nomination paper, both of the candidate and of the persons who have subscribed the nomination paper as proposer and seconder.

11. A proposer or a seconder once having signed a nomination paper shall not be allowed to withdraw.

12. A candidate may withdraw his candidature under sub-section (3) of section 27 of the Act by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Election Officer. The Election Officer shall on receiving such notice of withdrawal, as soon as may be, cause such notice to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office and in the office of the Returning Officer of the constituency in regard to which the withdrawal has taken place.

If any candidate withdraws his candidature within three days of the date of election, the name of such candidate shall be deemed to be omitted from the ballot paper notwithstanding the fact that his name is shown on the ballot paper.

Scrutiny of Nominations.

13. On the date appointed by the Provincial Government under rule 3 for the scrutiny of nomination, the candidates, their election agents, every proposer and every seconder of each candidate, and one other person duly authorised in writing by each candidate, but no other person, may attend at such time and place as the Election Officer may appoint, and the Returning Officer shall give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates which have been delivered within the time.

14. (1) The Returning Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made to any nomination, and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, refuse any nomination on any of the following grounds:—

(i) that the candidate is ineligible for election in accordance with the provisions of the Act, or

(ii) that the proposer or seconder is disqualified from subscribing the nomination paper under rule 6, or

(iii) that there has been any failure to comply with any of the provisions of the Act or of these rules relating to the nomination of candidates, or any failure to comply with the provisions of the Act relating to the deposit to be made by candidates under sub-section (3) of section 27 of the Act, or

(iv) that the candidate or the proposer or seconder is not identical with the person whose electoral number is given in the nomination paper as the number of such candidate, proposer or seconder, as the case may be, or

(v) that the signature of the candidate or the proposer or seconder is not genuine.

(2) For the purposes of this rule—

(a) an entry in the electoral roll of any constituency shall be conclusive evidence of the right of any elector named in that entry to stand for election or to subscribe a nomination paper as the case may be, subject to the disqualifications referred to in section 22 of the Act,

(b) where a person has subscribed whether as proposer or seconder a larger number of nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled, those of the papers so subscribed which have been first received, up to the number of vacancies to be filled, shall be deemed to be valid.

(3) Nothing contained in clause (ii), clause (iii), clause (iv) or clause (v) of sub-rule (1) shall be deemed to authorise the refusal of the nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper, if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(4) The Returning Officer shall not refuse any nomination paper on the ground of a slight technical defect such as the wrong spelling of a name or description of constituency so long as the intention is clear or any disparity between the signature of any person and his name as appearing in the electoral roll when the identity of such person is satisfactorily established.

15. (1) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same, and if the nomination paper is rejected, shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(2) The scrutiny shall be completed on the day appointed in this behalf, and no adjournment of the proceedings shall be allowed.

16. (1) On completion of the scrutiny of nominations, the Returning Officer shall forthwith examine symbols selected by the candidates and if such symbols are found to conflict with each other, he shall allocate the symbols in conformity as far as possible with the wishes of the candidates and if necessary by lot, and his decision in this respect shall be final. Each candidate or his election agent shall at the same time be informed of the symbol assigned to such candidate and shall be given a specimen thereof. He shall then prepare a list of valid nominations indicating therein the symbol assigned to each candidate and shall cause the said list to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office.

(2) In the case of uncontested returns the Returning Officer shall report the name or names of the candidate or candidates whom he declares to be elected to the Executive Officer and to the Election Officer, and thereupon the Election Officer shall after informing the candidate or candidates, cause the name or names of the candidate or candidates elected to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

17. If the number of duly nominated candidates is greater than the number of vacancies the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish in the local newspapers, and in such other manner as the Election Officer may prescribe, and in such places in the constituency as he may consider necessary, the names of the candidates as given in the nomination papers in alphabetical order in English and also the symbol assigned to each candidate.

In the case of a constituency in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes, the Returning Officer shall in publishing the names of duly nominated candidates under this rule indicate by special mark, the names of candidates who belong to the Scheduled Castes.

18. (1) If a candidate by whom or on whose behalf the deposit referred to in sub-section (3) of section 27, of the Act, has been made withdraws his candidature more than seven days before the date fixed for the election, or if the nomination of any such candidate is refused, the deposit shall be returned to the person by whom it was made; and if any candidate dies before the commencement of the poll, any such deposit, if made by him, shall be returned to his legal representatives or, if not made by the candidate, shall be returned to the persons by whom it was made.

(2) The deposit made in respect of a candidate shall, if it is not forfeited be returned to the candidate or to the person who has made the deposit on his behalf as soon as may be after the publication of the result of the election.

19. If a candidate who has been duly nominated dies after the date appointed for the scrutiny of nominations and before the date appointed for the taking of a poll, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate countermand the poll and report the fact to the Election Officer, and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced anew in all respects as if for a new election:

Provided that no fresh nomination or deposit shall be necessary in the case of a candidate who stood nominated at the time of the countermanding of the poll.

Polling.

20. The Election Officer shall appoint the hour at which the poll shall commence and the hour at which it shall close on the date appointed by the Provincial Government for the poll. The hours so fixed shall be published by notification at least three days before the election in the local newspapers and in such other manner as the Election Officer may direct.

21. (1) The Election Officer shall select for each constituency as many polling stations as he thinks necessary and shall publish at least three days before the date of polling in such manner as he may consider necessary a list showing the polling stations so selected and the polling areas for which they have respectively been selected.

(2) The Election Officer shall appoint a Presiding Officer for each polling station and such other persons (hereinafter referred to as polling officers) to assist the Presiding Officer as he thinks necessary. The Election Officer may appoint additional polling officers during an election, if necessary.

(3) If the Presiding Officer, owing to illness or other unavoidable cause, is obliged to absent himself from the polling station, his functions shall be performed by such polling officer as may be authorised by the Election Officer to perform such functions, during any such absence; and the expression "Presiding Officer" in these rules shall be deemed to include a polling officer so authorised.

(4) The Election Officer shall make separate arrangement for the recording of votes by women electors provided that any woman elector may record her vote at the men's booth by notifying in writing to the Election Officer, at least four days before the date of polling, her intention of so doing.

22. (1) The Presiding Officer shall keep order at the polling station, shall see that the election is fairly conducted, shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at one time, and shall exclude all other persons except:—

(a) the polling officers, the candidates, their election agents and for each polling officer in the case of polling booths for men one agent and in the case of polling booths for females two female agents of each candidate (each such agent being hereinafter referred to as the polling agent) to be appointed in writing by the candidate and authorised in this behalf by the Election Officer;

(b) the police or other public servants on duty; and

(c) such other person as the Presiding Officer may from time to time admit for the purpose of identifying electors:

Provided that unless for special reasons the Presiding Officer otherwise directs, no male shall be admitted inside the polling booth set apart under sub-rule (4) of rule 21 for the recording of votes by women electors.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall allow the polling agent of a candidate at the polling station to be relieved by another polling agent also duly appointed in writing by the candidate and authorised in this behalf by the Election Officer.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall close the polling station at the hour appointed in that behalf by the Election Officer under these rules so as to prevent the admission thereto of any elector after that hour, provided that all electors present at the polling station before it is so closed shall be entitled to have their votes recorded.

23. If any person misconducts himself at the polling station or fails to obey the lawful orders of the Presiding Officer he may immediately, by order of the Presiding Officer, be removed from the polling station by any police officer or by any other person authorised in writing by the Presiding Officer to remove him; and the person so removed shall not, unless with the permisison of the Presiding Officer, be allowed again to enter the polling station during the day:

Provided that this power shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station from having an opportunity of voting at such station.

(2) The official mark shall be kept secret.

26. Outside and inside each such polling station there shall be displayed on boards to be provided for the purpose by the Returning Officer, in bold and clear print, the name of each candidate in English, Bengali and/or any other vernacular language as may be decided by the Returning Officer, the name of the symbol assigned to him and the symbol itself.

27. Every ballot box shall be so constructed that ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom without the box being unlocked. The Presiding Officer shall immediately before the commencement of the poll at the polling station, show each ballot box to be used at the poll, to such persons as may be present in such station, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it up and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal, and shall place it in his view for the receipt of ballot papers and keep it so locked and sealed.

28. (1) Immediately before a ballot paper is delivered to an elector, it shall be marked on the back with the official mark, and the number, name and address of the elector as stated in the electoral roll shall be called out, and the number of the elector shall be entered on the counterfoil, and a mark shall be placed in a copy of the electoral roll against the number of the elector, to denote that he has received a ballot paper, but without showing the particular ballot paper which he has received. The counterfoil shall bear the name of the constituency and the name or distinctive number of the polling station shall be entered thereon by either the Presiding Officer or the polling officer.

(2) In deciding the right of a person to obtain a ballot paper for the purpose of voting at an election, the Presiding Officer may interpret an entry in the electoral roll so as to overlook merely clerical or printing errors but shall record his reasons for doing so, and the interpretation he has adopted, on the counterfoil of the ballot paper issued to such person.

29. The elector on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith proceed to one of the screened compartments in the polling station set apart for marking ballot papers by electors, and there mark the symbol or symbols printed on the ballot paper against the name of the candidate or candidates for whom he intends to vote in accordance with the instructions set out on the ballot paper, and fold it up, so as to conceal his vote, and shall put his ballot paper, so folded up, into the ballot box. Every elector shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

30. If the elector, owing to illiteracy or physical or other disability, is unable to read the symbols on a ballot paper or to make a mark thereon, the Presiding Officer or polling officer shall mark the vote in the ballot paper according to the direction of the elector. The elector shall then himself, or with the assistance of the Presiding Officer, put the ballot paper folded up into the ballot box.

31. At any time before a ballot paper is delivered to an elector, the Presiding Officer or polling officer may, of his own accord, if he has reason to doubt the identity of the elector or his right to vote at such station, and shall, if so required by a candidate or his election agent or polling agent, put to the elector the following questions:—

(1) Are you the person enrolled as follows (reading the whole entry from the roll)? and,

(2) Have you already voted at the present election in this constituency as such voter?

and the elector shall not be supplied with a ballot paper if he refuses to answer any one of the questions and unless he answers the first question in the affirmative and the second question in the negative.

32. The ballot paper, in the case of a constituency in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes, shall be in Form II annexed to these rules and in the case of other constituencies shall be in Form III annexed to these rules. The ballot paper shall contain the names of the candidates arranged alphabetically in English together with the symbols assigned to each candidate printed against the name of each. In the case of a constituency in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes the names of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes shall be indicated by special mark on the ballot paper. The names and the instructions in the form may be printed in such vernaculars as the Election Officer thinks fit having regard to each constituency. The ballot papers shall be serially numbered, the serial number being printed on the face of the counterfoil and on the back of the ballot paper.

33. If a person representing himself to be a particular elector named on the electoral roll applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant shall, after duly answering such questions as the Presiding Officer may ask, be entitled to mark a ballot paper in the same manner as any other elector. Such ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as a "tendered ballot paper") shall be of a colour different from the other ballot papers, and instead of being put into the ballot box, shall be given to the Presiding Officer and endorsed by him with the name of the elector and his number on the electoral roll and the name of the electoral area to which the roll relates and shall be set aside in a separate packet and shall not be counted by the Returning Officer. The name of the elector and his number in the electoral roll and the name or distinctive number of the polling station to which the roll relates shall be entered in a list in Form IV annexed to these rules, which shall bear the heading "tendered votes list." The person tendering such ballot paper shall sign his name and address thereon or affix his thumb impression against the entry in that list.

34. (1) If any polling agent declares in writing and undertakes to prove, or if the Presiding Officer for any reason is clearly of opinion, that any person by applying for a ballot paper has committed the offence of personation, the Presiding Officer shall require such person to enter in the list of challenged votes (which shall be in Form V annexed to these rules) his name and address, or if he is unable to write, to affix his thumb impression thereto. If such person refuses to comply with such requisition he shall not be permitted to vote, but if he does so comply, he shall be allowed to vote, after he has been warned of the penalty for personation, provided that he answers the question mentioned in rule 31 in the manner laid down therein.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall in every case, whether or not the person is allowed to vote, make a note of the circumstances in the list of challenged votes.

35. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot conveniently be used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the Presiding Officer and satisfying him of the inadvertence, obtain another ballot paper in place of the spoilt paper, and the latter shall together with its counterfoil, be marked as cancelled by the Presiding Officer.

36. A Presiding Officer, polling officer, election agent or polling agent who being an elector of any constituency is duly authorised or appointed for duty at a polling station at which he is not entitled to vote may apply to the Returning Officer of the constituency for a certificate entitling him to vote at that polling station but at no other. On the production of such certificate he shall be allowed to vote at that polling station. The certificate shall be in Form VI annexed to these rules and a copy thereof shall be sent by the Returning Officer to the Presiding Officer of the polling station at which the elector would otherwise have been entitled to vote.

37. (1) A ballot paper shall be issued in the same manner as to any other elector to the person to whom a certificate has been granted under rule 36 on production of such certificate:

Provided that the Presiding Officer or the polling officer shall under rule 28 enter on the counterfoil of the ballot paper not only the name or distinctive number of the polling station at which the vote is recorded but also the name of the polling station at which such person would otherwise have been entitled to vote.

(2) The ballot papers issued under sub-rule (1) shall be dealt with in the folowing manner:—

(a) If the polling station at which the person is authorised or appointed for duty is in the same constituency as the one in which he is entitled to vote, then the provisions contained in rule 29 shall apply. The certificate produced under sub-rule (1) shall be filed by the Presiding Officer.

(b) If the polling station at which the person is authorised or appointed for duty is not in the same constituency as the one in which he is entitled to vote, then before a ballot paper is issued to such person under sub-rule (1) the Presiding Officer shall score out the names of candidates and the symbols assigned to them on the ballot paper and insert in it the names of the candidates for the constituency at which such person is entitled to vote indicating therein in the case where such constituency is one in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes the names of candidates belonging to those castes by special mark, and shall also revise the instructions printed on the ballot paper in such manner as may be necessary. The person shall then go inside the polling compartment and there mark on the ballot paper against the name of the candidate or candidates for whom he intends to vote in accordance with the instructions set out on the ballot paper, and fold it up so as to conceal his vote, and shall put his ballot paper so folded up in an envelope to be supplied to him by the Presiding Officer or the polling officer. The envelope shall then in the case where such person is not the Presiding Officer be handed over to the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall then seal up the envelope and keep it with him until the close of the poll. The Presiding Officer shall despatch the envelope together with the certificate produced under sub-rule (1) to the Returning Officer concerned as soon as practicable after the close of the poll.

38. The Presiding Officer shall, as soon as practicable after the close of the poll at a polling station, in the presence of any candidates or their election agents or polling agents who may be present, make up into separate parcels and seal with his own seal and the seal of such candidates or agents as may desire to affix their seal—

(1) each ballot box in use at each station unopened but with the key attached and the slit in the lid sealed up;

(2) the unused ballot papers;

(3) the tendered ballot papers;

(4) the spoilt ballot papers;

(5) the marked copy of the electoral roll and any certificates filed by the Presiding Officer under rule 37;

(6) the counterfoils of the ballot papers;

(7) the tendered votes list; and

(8) the list of challenged votes;

and shall deliver such packets or cause them to be delivered to the Returning Officer.

39. The packets shall be accompanied by a statement in Form VII annexed to these rules made by the Presiding Officer, showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers in the ballot box, unused, spoilt, and tendered ballot papers, and ballot papers dealt with under rule 37.

Scrutiny of votes.

40. The Election Officer shall appoint a date which shall be not later than a week after the polling day for the counting of votes. The Returning Officer shall fix the place and time at which the votes shall be counted on the date so appointed and shall give notice of such date, time and place in writing to all candidates and election agents.

41. (1) No person shall be allowed to be present at the counting of the votes except the Returning Officer and such persons as he may appoint to assist him in counting the votes, and such other persons as have a right to be present under sub-section (5) of section 29 of the Act.

(2) No person shall be appointed to assist in counting the votes, who has been employed by or on behalf of any candidate for any purpose whatsoever connected with the election.

42. On the day and at the time appointed under rule 40 the Returning Officer shall proceed as follows —

(a) The ballot box or boxes relating to each polling station shall be opened one after another, and the Returning Officer shall take out the papers therefrom, count them or cause them to be counted, and record the number thereof in a statement. The Returning Officer shall then open the envelopes, if any, despatched to him under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 37, take out the ballot papers therefrom and record the number of such ballot papers in the said statement. Such statement shall not be shown to any candidate or agent.

(b) The Returning Officer shall then mix together all the ballot papers so taken out from the ballot boxes and the envelopes and distribute them in convenient bundles to the persons appointed to assist in counting the votes.

(c) When the ballot papers have been so distributed, but not before, the Returning Officer shall allow the candidates and their representatives duly authorised under sub-section (5) of section 29 of the Act, reasonable opportunity to inspect, without handling the ballot papers, and shall on every ballot paper which is wholly or partially rejected endorse the word "Rejected". If any candidate or his representative present questions the correctness of the rejection, he shall also record on the ballot paper the grounds for the rejection. No candidate or representative shall be allowed to see the serial number on the back of any ballot paper.

(d) The Returning Officer shall, as far as practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of the votes; and shall, during any necessary intervals during which the counting has to be suspended, place the ballot papers, packets and other documents relating to the election under his own seal and the seals of such candidates or representatives as may desire to affix them and shall cause adequate precautions to be taken for their safe custody.

43. (1) A ballot paper shall be rejected if—

(a) it has not on its back the official mark,

(b) the number of votes recorded thereon exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled,

(c) no vote is recorded thereon,

(d) it is void for uncertainty,

(e) it bears any mark by which the elector can be identified.

(2) In a constituency in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes, the ballot paper shall be also rejected if the number of votes recorded thereon in favour of candidates not belonging to the Scheduled Castes exceeds the number of seats in that constituency not reserved for members of those castes.

(3) The decision of the Returning Officer as to the validity of a ballot paper shall be final, subject only to reversal by the orders of a Court of competent jurisdiction.

44. The Returning Officer shall not open the sealed packets of the tendered votes, the marked copy of the electoral roll or the counterfoils of the ballot papers. He shall verify the statement submitted by the Presiding Officer under rule 39 by comparing it with the statement prepared under clause (a) of rule 42 and with the number of counted votes and the rejected ballot papers, the unused ballot papers in his possession and tendered votes list, shall then reclose and re-seal each packet which has been opened by him, make up into packets the ballot papers which have been counted and seal such packets, and shall record on each packet a description of its contents and the date of the election to which it refers.

45. The Returning Officer shall then prepare and certify a return setting forth—

(1) the result of the verification referred to in rule 44,

(2) the names of the candidates for whom valid votes have been given,

(3) the number of valid votes given for each candidate,

(4) the name or names of the candidate or candidates selected,

(5) the number of votes declared invalid, and

(6) the number of tendered votes given, and shall permit any candidate or any representative duly authorised under sub-section (5) of section 29 of the Act to take a copy of or an extract from such return.

46. The Returning Officer shall, after reporting the result of the election send the return and all packets relating to the election in his possession to the Election Officer. The Election Officer as soon as he receives the return and the packets shall forward them to the Executive Officer for safe custody.

47. While in the custody of the Executive Officer the packets of ballot papers, whether counted, rejected or tendered, and of the counterfoils thereof, shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected or produced except under the order of a Court of competent jurisdiction but all other documents relating to the election shall be open to public inspection subject to such conditions as the Executive Officer may impose.

48. The packets aforesaid shall be retained for a period of one year and shall thereafter be destroyed subject to any direction to the contrary made by the Executive Officer or by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

Note.—Where the remittance is by cheque, the amount, if any, charged by the Government Agent's bank as collection charges shall be deducted from the amount of the cheque, and the applicant given credit only for the balance.

11. Every policy of insurance issued on an application made in accordance with the provisions of rule 10 shall take effect from the date of the receipt of the application by the Government Agent or, as the case may be, the officer authorised by the Government Agent, or on and from the date given in the application as the date on which the insurance is to commence, whichever is later.

12. (1) If the amount accompanying the application falls short of the premium due on the sum for which the goods are proposed for insurance, a policy for such proportion of the sum proposed as the amount paid bears to the premium due shall be issued, and the applicant shall make a further application for insurance of the balance.

(2) If no amount accompanies the application, the application if otherwise in order may be kept in suspense pending the receipt of the requisite premium; and on receipt of the requisite premium, a policy of insurance shall be issued on such application, and shall take effect from the date of receipt of the premium or on and from the date given in the application as the date on which the insurance is to commence, whichever is later.

(3) If the application for insurance is not received in accordance with the Form as given in the Third Schedule to these Rules, the premium may be retained by the Government Agent and the application returned to the applicant for resubmission. A policy of insurance shall be issued on receipt of such application correctly made out in accordance with the Form and that policy shall take effect from the date of receipt of the application so made out, or on and from the date given in the application as the date on which the insurance is to commence whichever is later.

13. The Government Agent shall issue a policy of insurance as soon as possible after the receipt of an application in accordance with the provisions of rule 10:—

Provided that—

(a) if the application shows that the applicant has taken out an insurance in respect of the same goods or any part thereof against fire, marine, or accident risks with any other insurance company, the Government Agent may, in his discretion, postpone the issue of the policy until enquiries have been made from that company; and

(b) if the premium is remitted by cheque, the Government Agent may, in his discretion, postpone the issue of the policy until the cheque has been cashed.

14. In the event of the loss of a policy a duplicate policy will not be issued, but if it is satisfactorily proved that a policy has been issued, the absence of that policy will not be a bar to a claim under it.

15. (1) All claims shall be submitted in writing in the Form set forth in the Fifth Schedule to these Rules to the Government Agent concerned within the time specified in condition 4 of the Conditions set forth in the Second Schedule to these Rules.

(2) On receipt of a claim, the Government Agent shall have it verified, and the loss or damage, if any, assessed, by a person who is for the time being included in the list of recognised Loss Assessors issued and maintained by the Central Government in this behalf, or if the Central Government so directs, by such person as may be specially deputed by it for the purpose:

Provided that in case of loss or damage in a district where none of the loss assessors, included in the list of recognised Loss Assessors resides or is present, such verification and assessment shall be made by a person who may be deputed for the purpose either by any of the prescribed associations or by any of the Special Officers, War Risks (Goods) Insurance.

(3) As soon as the Loss Assessor has verified the claim and assessed the loss or damage, if any, he shall report thereon to the Government Agent who shall after such further verification as he thinks fit to make, forward the report, with his remarks and recommendation, to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Department of Commerce through the Accounts Officer to whom the counterfoil of the policy was sent.

(4) If the claim is proved to the satisfaction of the Central Government, a payment order will be issued in favour of the claimant, who, on receipt of payment, which will be made through the Government Agent, shall give a receipt in the Form set forth in the Sixth Schedule to these Rules.

16. An account of all sums received into and paid out of the Fund shall be prepared in the Form set forth in the Fourth Schedule to these Rules and shall be published annually.

[See rule 15 (1) and the First Schedule.]

CONDITIONS.

The Governor General shall be under no liability under any policy of insurance to which these conditions apply (hereinafter referred to as "the policy") if and in so far as the Insured is not entitled to be insured for the sum thereby insured in respect of the property insured under the Ordinance.

2. If at the time of the happening of any loss or damage the total value of the property insured shall exceed the sum insured under the policy, the Insured shall be considered as being his own insurer for the excess and shall bear a rateable share of the loss accordingly.

3. If at the time of the happening of any loss or damage there be any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured covering any of the property suffering that loss or damage, the liability of the Governor General under the policy shall be limited to its rateable proportion of such loss or damage.

4. On the happening of any loss or damage the Insured shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing to the Agent, and shall within ten days after such loss or damage, or such further time as the Agent may in writing allow, at his own expense deliver to the Agent a claim in writing containing as particular an account as may be reasonably practicable of the several articles or portions of property suffering that loss or damage and of the amount of such loss or damage, having regard to their value at the time of the loss or damage, together with details of any other insurances on the property insured. The Insured shall also give to the Agent all such proofs and information with respect to the claim as may reasonably be required, together with (if demanded) a declaration, verified by an affidavit, of the truth of the claim and of any matters connected therewith. No claim under the policy shall be payable unless the terms of this condition have been complied with.

The Governor General shall not be bound to reinstate exactly or completely but only as circumstances permit and in reasonably sufficient manner and shall not in any case be bound to expend in respect of the property insured more than the sum insured thereon.

8. On the happening of any loss or damage in respect of which a claim is or may be made under the policy, the Agent and every person authorised by the Agent may, without thereby incurring any liability, and without diminishing the right of the Governor General to rely upon any conditions of the policy, enter, take or keep possession of the building or premises where the loss or damage has happened, and may take possession of or required to be delivered to them any of the property insured, and may keep possession of and deal with such property for all reasonable purposes and in any reasonable manner. This condition shall be evidence of the leave and licence of the Insured to the Governor General so to do. GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

WAR RISKS (GOODS) INSURANCE ORDINANCE, 1940.

Instructions.

1. The Government of India have put to operation as from the 1st October, 1940, the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme whereby the Government undertake to insure certain Goods on land or on inland waters in British India against War Risks.

2. GOODS INSURABLE: The Ordinance defines the Goods to which the scheme applies; these include Goods (with certain exceptions) which are held for sale by persons carrying on business as sellers of goods, such as manufacturers, wholesale distributors, and retailers, including the raw materials from which goods are manufactured and goods in process of manufacture.

3. GOODS NOT INSURABLE: A list of goods which cannot be insured under the scheme has been published in the Gazette. For precise details of the goods concerned reference should be made to that list, but, an idea of the kind of goods exempted may be obtained from the following:

Growing crops; plants and trees; live-stock; fleeces and the skins of animals; coal and coke; ores and scrap of certain metals and alloys thereof; certain kinds of bricks, tiles and slates; certain specified kinds of manufactured iron and steel; gold, silver and other precious metals and manufactures and alloys thereof in specified forms; postage stamps; objects of art and craftsmanship not less than 100 years old; cement and lime; specified varieties of certain metals and alloys thereof; natural pearls; jewellery and precious and semi-precious stones; concrete products; certain specified kinds of printing machinery; and goods not for sale.

4. PROPERTY TO WHICH SCHEME DOES NOT APPLY: The Scheme does not apply to buildings, factory machinery and plant, and other forms of immovable property.

5. COMPULSORY INSURANCE: As from the 1st November 1940, any person carrying on business as a seller of goods must insure the whole of his goods which are insurable under this scheme for their full value if the value of such goods within one and the same Presidency Town or District exceeds Rs. 20,000. THE ORDINANCE PRESCRIBES HEAVY FINES FOR CONTRAVENTION.

6. HOW TO INSURE: The Application form overleaf should be completed and forwarded with a remittance for the premium to a Government Agent.

7. GOVERNMENT AGENTS: The Government of India have appointed certain Insurance Companies transacting Fire, Marine or Accident Insurance to act as Government Agents and issue policies under the scheme. If the goods are insured against Fire with an Insurance Company it is strongly recommended that the War Risks (Goods) Insurance should be arranged through that Company. If this is not done there may be considerable delay in obtaining cover.

8. PERIOD OF INSURANCE: The maximum period for which a policy will be issued is three months. Policies issued on or after the 1st October will expire on the 31st December; those issued on or after the 1st January, will expire on the 31st March; those issued on or after the 1st April, will expire on the 30th June; and those issued on or after the 1st July will expire on the 30th September. No policy will be issued to expire on any intermediate date.

9. RATE OF PREMIUM: The rate of premium is fixed quarterly and the current rate may be ascertained from any Government Agent.

10. CALCULATION OF PREMIUM: On insurances effected during the months of April, July, October and January three months' premium will be payable. On insurances effected during the months of May, August, November and February two months' premium will be payable. On insurances effected during the months of June, September, December and March one month's premium will be payable.

11. MINIMUM PREMIUM: The minimum premium for the first policy issued to any person in any quarter for a period of one month or less will be Rs. 5. Similarly for the first policy issued for a period exceeding one month the minimum premium will be Rs. 10. For any subsequent policy issued to the same person in the same quarter, the minimum premium will be Rs. 2-8-0.

12. VOLUNTARY INSURANCE: Any person carrying on business as a seller of goods whose stocks of goods insurable under this scheme within one and the same Presidency Town or District do not exceed Rs. 20,000 in value may insure under the scheme.

13. FLOATING POLICIES: In certain cases floating policies may be issued. Full details can be obtained on application to any Insurance Company appointed as Government Agent.
